

Free Workshop 26 March 2012

Understanding Young People who Hear Voices: An Introduction

Monday 26th March 2012, 10.00am - 4.30pm

Amnesty International Human Rights Action Centre

Around 8% of young people hear things that other people don't - so if you work with young people you probably already know someone who does.

This introductory workshop, facilitated by experienced staff with personal and professional experience of voice-hearing, will answer the following essential questions:

1. What does it feel like to hear voices?
2. Why does it happen?
3. How can young people cope / recover?
4. What can I do to help?
5. What other support is out there?

This workshop is aimed at: anyone working with young people in Greater London, including youth workers, teachers, school nurses, counsellors, mentors, social workers, SENCOs, helpline staff and Tier One/Tier Two CAMHS workers.

Venue: Amnesty International Human Rights Action Centre
17-25 New Inn Yard, London, EC2A 3EA

Tube: Old Street, Shoreditch High Street, Liverpool Street

To book your place return the attached form or use our online booking facility:

E: info@voicecollective.co.uk

W: bookwhen.com/voicecollective

T: Claire / Rachel 020 7625 9042

Voice Collective, Mind in Camden, Crossfields, 8 Fairhazel Gardens, London, NW6 3SG

Funded by:

BBC Children in Need
Comic Relief
City Bridge Trust

Voice Collective is Mind in Camden's London-wide project for children & young people who hear, see or sense things that others don't. For more information, see www.voicecollective.co.uk

Name:

Job Title:

Address:

Organisation/team:

Phone:

Email:

Please book me a place on the above workshop on 26th March 2012. *Please note: Places are allocated on a first come - first served basis. As such, we cannot accept bookings until we receive all the information asked for above.